INTRIGUED?

Broadlands Estate, home of the Mountbatten family, sits between Romsey and Southampton in Hampshire. The stunning 140 acre Parkland and the beautiful Orangery are available for corporate events.

The Parkland has lush grass and beautiful, ancient, specimen trees. The Orangery is historic, discreet and newly restored. Both are suited to all kinds of events.

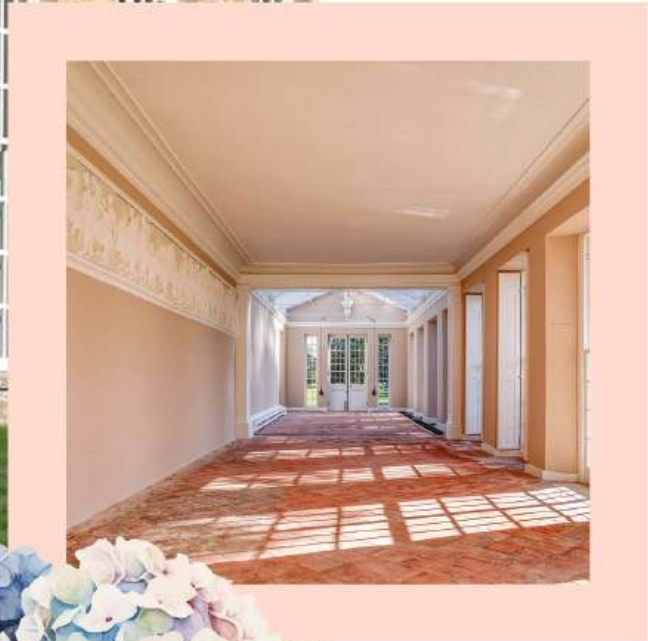

A large, leafy tree dominates the foreground, its branches spreading across the top and sides of the frame. The sun is positioned behind the tree, creating a bright sunburst effect that filters through the leaves. The ground is covered in tall, golden-brown grasses, and a misty or hazy atmosphere is visible in the background. A white rectangular box with a thin border is centered over the tree's trunk, containing the text "140 ACRES OF BEAUTIFUL PARKLAND".

140 ACRES OF BEAUTIFUL PARKLAND

Although Broadlands Estate has hosted many public events over the last 100 years, Broadlands is now available for corporate events. There is a Premises Licence (including sale of alcohol) for up to 15,000 people.
